THE CHURCH IN WALLSBURG

Because all of the early settlers in Wallsburg were members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, they accepted Church activity as a prime factor of life. Thus, they built their community life and social affairs around the Church.

William M. Wall was first presiding elder in the valley and served until the organization of a ward July 15, 1877 when William E. Nuttall was appointed bishop. Bishop Nuttall served until 1886 when he was suc-
